

Minister Amarjeet Sohi donates to Islamic Relief Canada's Fort McMurray Wildfire

24 May 2016 - The Minister of Infrastructure and Communities Amarjeet Sohi has donated $5000 from municipal campaign surplus funds to Islamic Relief's Fort McMurray's Wildfire Emergency appeal.

Over the weekend, Islamic Relief Canada's CEO Zaid-al-Rawni visited Fort McMurray evacuees in Edmonton to take part in some of the distributions being carried out by our response team in Edmonton.

Our team in Edmonton is distributing food, blankets, first aid kits, sleeping bags, cots, pillows and other necessities to help support families and individuals who have had to evacuate.

Minister Sohi was impressed by the work being done by Islamic Relief Canada and donated $5000 to help our relief efforts.

For any media queries please contact media@islamicrelief.ca/+16472004662 (journalists only)

For any other queries- including volunteering and donating please contact 1-855-377-HOPE (4673)